

Refractometer

The refractometer is a precision instrument which tests the freezing levels of Antifreeze and battery fluids and has an automatic temperature compensation facility.

Additional Information

- Contents: refractometer, precision screwdriver for the calibration screw.
- Tests the freezing levels of antifreeze and battery fluids.
- Automatic temperature compensation.
- Includes dropper for collecting fluid and plastic storage case.
- Also works on modern long-life Organic Acid Technology (OAT) antifreeze and Propylene Glycol.

<http://lasertools.co.uk/product/3272>

